Issue No. 26 - November 2016

European Testing Week

The European Testing Week takes off this Friday! Lots of updated materials are available to help implement activities, and this year there are three new Factsheets focus on Government involvement and key populations. All materials can be accessed and downloaded here.

So far 497 participants from 49 countries in the WHO European Region have signed up. There is still time to join, sign up here.

This year there is also a Thunderclap campaign running. “an online flashmob” to which it would be great to have your support. When joining, you and others will share the same one message about the testing week starting on the first day of TW at 9.00 am.

To support, please click this link:
